CIRCUIT COURT.

FIRST DAY.

Monday was a typical Circuit Court day in Marion. People were in from all parts of the county, some came because they were summoned on juries, some to look after litigation, some to see the new Judge and Attorney, some to trade horses, and some to see the people in general. When the court house bell rang, the court house was crowded with people, everybody anxious to hear Judge Pratt give his charge to the grand jury. The jury was called and empaneled and the Judge's talk was given marked attention.

The Judge said he was mindful of the grave responsibilities resting upon him. The present term of court was important; it was the first session in the county under the new constitution; we had a new district and new officers. I have a high sense of these responsibilities; my official position makes me the sponsor in a measure of your firesides, the protector of your churches, of your liberties and your property. In all civilized countries differences arise. All honest, conscientious men differ, they can not see things. For the adjustments of these differences, the courts were established and were necessary. Crimes must be punished and courts were established to apply the remedies the provided. No matter how good the laws were, they were useless until enforced. Our liberties, our happiness, our safety depends upon the enforcement of our laws. Our country has made vast progress during the decade, and the circumstances that have arisen demanded new laws; the new constitution is the result of this demand. The adoption of the constitution marked a new epoch in the history of the Commonwealth. Many of the old things had passed away. One of the important things of the new era, was the secret. It drives the bribe giver away, it gives a fair election, a free election. God bless the secret ballot, it is the safety of our country. The laws protecting it should be enforced.

The Judge then enumerated the various crimes, defining many of them. He dwelt upon the awfulness of homicide; referred to arson, burglary, bigamy, perjury, rape, embezzlement, robbery, larceny, getting money by false pretenses. He called attention to officers.

After the jury retired the report of the officers was called for and the following were filed:

W. M. Morgan, fines collected, $10.00
L. A. LaRue, .01
J. A. Moore, County Judge, 179.74
H. A. Haynes, Circuit Clerk, 37.50
J. T. Franks, Sheriff, 3.50
D. Woods, County Clerk, 163.37
J. C. Stephenson, 21.00

SECOND DAY.

The following cases were called and filed away with leave to restate: Commonwealth vs Walker, Lyenbee Thos. Bass and Albert Gardner.

The following cases were continued and alias bench warrants awarded in each: Commonwealth against, Robert Hodge, G. B. Millican, Wm. Maynard, D. A. Gregory, Dick Carr, Emory Brown, Horace Walker, Maggie Yates, H. Stenbridge, Phil Martin, John and James Burton, Geo. Hazel, Lee Brooks, Thos. Myers, Ed. McCaslin, Frank Deboe, Prof. Hays, Ralph Bugg, J. T. Hughes.

Commonwealth vs Pete Buckalew, carrying concealed deadly weapons, fine $25.

The cases of the Commonwealth vs W. L. Bigham, Elsie Barley were dismissed.

Same vs Wm. Burton, adultery, dismissed.

Same vs Wm. King, rape, continued upon motion of defense.

Commonwealth Attorney Grayott, filed the following: "I am reliably informed that Kate Moore is a person of unsound mind and an idiot, and therefore ask that a jury be empaneled to pass upon the subject. A jury was sworn in and returned the following verdict: We find from the evidence that Kate Moore is a person of unsound mind and an idiot, that the unsoundness of mind was caused from a spell of fever when quite young, that she has no estate and she is not capable of laboring."

It was therefore adjudged by the court that Kate Moore is an idiot.

THE COMMISSIONERS REPORT

Dunn Springs the Best Site, But a Postponement Recommended.

The commissioners appointed by the court of claims to report upon the Fords Ferry and Dunn Springs bridge matter visited the two sites Monday, making a careful survey of the situation. The claims of both factions were set forth by the spokesmen of the contending sites. Messrs J. R. Clement and Allen Wofford led the fight for Dunn Springs and Messrs A. B. Rankin, A. D. McFee, Jas. Paris and Jas. Rankin led the Fords Ferry party. After hearing and seeing, the commissioners returned and filed the following report:

TO THE CRITTENDEN COUNTY COURT OF CLAIMS:

Gentlemen: Your committee appointed at your last term to view sites for proposed bridges on Crooked Creek at Dunn Springs ford and Fords Ferry report as follows:

We visited said places as ordered, and gathered all the information we could touching the surroundings and connections as to which would be the most accessible and convenient for the people, and greatest benefit to the traveling public, and probable cost thereof. A bridge at each place would be of great benefit to a large section of country, but from the surroundings and connections with other public roads, we are decidedly of the opinion that a bridge at the Dunn Springs ford will be of much greater benefit to the traveling public than at Fords Ferry.

We are poorly equipped to give probable cost for such work, having no experience in bridge building, but give such estimates as we have gathered from Pat Sliney, of Hampton, Livingston county, Ky., an expert stone mason and contractor, and Mr. H. F. Ray, of Marion, Ky., a machinist and bridge builder, which estimates are herewith filed and made a part of this report. The Dunn Springs bridge is estimated to cost:

Stone work, $1500.00.

Iron work, from $1500.00 to $2000.00.

Making a total of from $3000.00 to $3500.00. This estimate is for a bridge 25 feet high. Our opinion is that it will take a bridge 30 feet high to be safe against a washout. To this estimate should be added the cost of the approaches, which will not be very much.

Two plans for the Fords Ferry bridge were submitted by Mr. Ray. First, a single span.

Stone work, $5000.00.

Iron work, $3000.00.

Total, $8000.00.

Second, three spans.

Stone work, $1600.00.

Iron work, $3500.00.

Total, $5100.00.

These estimates are for a bridge 45 feet high. We are of the opinion that it will take one 55 feet high at least to be safe. The above does not include the approaches.

There is no public road to or from either of the above sites. If you will permit, we recommend, owing to the condition of the county's finance, that the building of the above bridge be postponed for the present.

Respectfully submitted,

A. A. Deboe, J. R. Jackson, Com. A. Woodall, )

Mr. J. H. Hillyard has sold his property in Marion to Mr. R. W. Wilson and will, in a few weeks, move to Henderson. Mr. Hillyard is one of the old citizens of the new Marion. He came here about fifteen years ago, when our town was dragging along a second rate country village. He put his money and energy into business here, and while he benefitted himself, he helped start the town on its good, healthful second growth and helped to keep it on the road to prosperity, which it is now traveling. The Press very much regrets to see him leave. He is a good citizen, and a few hundred years ahead of Marion, she will find that Mr. Hillyard is up with her.

Tuesday a friend of Dick Scott was soliciting assistance for him. He is in a very deplorable physical condition, entirely helpless and without hope of recovery. He was brought from Livingston county by his brother J. J. Scott and is living in a house on his brother's farm. He is very poor, has no property and can do no work. He deserves and should receive help from christian people, those who advocate charity, can practice it in this case, and it is the pure genuine charity. Send the poor man a little of your substance, he will appreciate it, and the good christian doctrine is that God will bless you for it.

BOOMER'S KEPT BACK.

The Cherokee Strip Border Patrolled Once a Day by the Regular Troops.

Arkansas City, Ark., March 26.—A tour of the Cherokee Strip lands, soon to be opened, has just been completed by J. W. Gillingswater, representing the Interior Department, and K. N. Cliney, of the Indian Land Commission. They report more prospective settlers on the southern than the northern border. All are very poor and many have already spent the little means they brought with them in providing for families and stock. The Cherokee Council will meet next Tuesday to act on the Government proposition. The strip is patrolled once a day by United States troops and the boomers are kept back from the 34,000 100-acre farms they are viewing with such anxiety.

Ram's Horn.

The only real good is eternal good. God is not trusted when we worry. Too many people worship a god of their own make.

There is much of God's love in a warning as there is in a promise.

The man who is mean to a child is a good hand for the devil anywhere.

Until we receive God for our strength we can not know Him for our peace.

The bad man is not a sinner because he does evil, but because he loves it.

People who are ashamed of their religion generally have good reason to be so.

The only thing that can always be counted upon for a certainty is the goodness of God.

One of the duties every man owes to himself is to live so that he can respect himself.

We always hate our own sins when they get far enough away from us to be looked at.

"Pure religion and undefiled" is the only kind that means anything at all in the sight of God.

God does not want His children to live on stale bread, but a good many of them are trying to do it.

Diamonds will burn and gold will melt, but God's word will stand when the rocks and mountains are gone.

No man can sleep well in cloudy weather when he knows that his house is a sandy foundation.

The right kind of a good man will keep right on growing in grace, no matter whether he can have his own way or not.

If the devil could not sometimes make a lie as good-looking as the truth, the way to the pit would not be so crowded.

We have the warrant of God's word to hope in Him when we have nothing upon which to base a hope anywhere else.

The more gold is hammered the brighter it looks. Let the Christian who thinks his lot is hard sit down and think of this.

RESOLUTIONS.

Be it Resolved by the Board of Trustees of the town of Marion, Crittenden County, State of Kentucky.

1. That article 21st of the by-laws of the town of Marion, Ky., be a d the same is hereby repealed. And in lieu thereof the following is adopted, viz:

That all transient person (other than citizens of this country,) who shall sell any goods, wares or merchandise of any kind, (other than the kinds herein after mentioned,) at auction or at retail in the town of Marion shall first pay to the treasurer or clerk of said town the sum of fifty dollars per day, for each person directly or indirectly involved in such sales, or any and all persons who may be employed to assist directly or indirectly in making such sales.

2. That all transient persons, (other than citizens of this country,) who shall sell any patent or other medicine at auction or at retail in the town of Marion shall first pay to the treasurer or clerk of said town the sum of ten dollars, for each day for each person directly or indirectly engaged, or employed in such sales.

3. That all transient persons (other than a citizen of this country,) who shall sell any spectacles, watches, jewelry or other article belonging to the jewelry business, at auction or at retail in the town of Marion shall first pay to the treasurer or clerk of said town the sum of ten dollars, for each day for each person that may be engaged in making such sales.

4. That upon the payment of the sum of money mentioned in either of the sections 1, 2, and 3, it shall be the duty of the clerk or treasurer to give the applicant a certificate showing they have complied with the requirements of said section. All other ordinances or resolutions in conflict with the foregoing are hereby repealed, and these ordinances shall go into effect from and after the date. This, the 20th day of March, 1893.

CALIFORNIA HERMIT.

Men Facing Their Lives in Life Solitude on the Mountain Tops.

Is man essentially a social animal? The scientists say so. But in the mountains of California there are almost enough men who for years have led a life of utter solitude to disprove the generalization. These mountain hermits can be found scattered through the Sierra and the coast range from one end of the state to the other. They are particularly numerous through this region, centering about the Yosemite valley and extending far back into the high Sierras. Some of them were once guides in the valley, others have been miners, and some again seem to have taken up the life of solitude simply because they like it.

To this class belongs old P. R. Gibson—"Old Gib," as he is generally called—who lives on a mountain ranch. He is seventy-five years old, but is possessed of as much physical strength and endurance as the average man of half his age. He came thirty years ago from Tennessee, where he left a wife and a large family of children. One of his sons came to see him recently and tried to induce him to visit his former home, but "Old Gib" steadfastly refused to leave his little ranch and solitary cabin. He has never seen a railroad, and the stage drivers from the nearest station try their utmost to persuade him to go to town and at least look at a train of cars. But his invariable answer is: "Do you think I'm going down there to be blown up by one of them there blasted engines? Not much!"

Nearly all the men who live this life of solitude very long get a bit queer in the head, and "Old Gib" is no exception to the rule. He has a remarkable description of himself which declares that he is "the best man in the United States or adjoining territories, either directly or indirectly, financially, commercially, ecclesiastically or unchurchified." The old man is a hard worker, and when he is not busy on his ranch he is working energetically making "shakes"—that is, clapping split and saved by hand from big pine trees.

Old man Lambert, who has a cabin in the high Sierras some thirty miles back of the Yosemite, is another of the mountain hermits. He has neither ranch nor mining claim, but lives by what he shoots and by an occasional few dollars earned from camping parties. He has lived alone in that same spot for years and years, and will in all likelihood stay there until he dies. There are months at a time that he does not see another human being. A party of campers one summer found him making a huge stone wall that seemed to have no purpose whatever. In surprise they asked him what he was piling up these stones for. "Why," he said, "a man's got to do something, up here alone, or he'll go wrong, sure."—Cor. Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle.

Longevity in England. The death rate in the Peak of Derbyshire is so low that the district rivals in salubrity the American village which was so extraordinarily healthy that the inhabitants who wished to "shuffle off this mortal coil" had to migrate into a neighboring town. The mortality at Buxton is nine per 1,000; at the adjacent hamlet of Flash it is said that death takes only the very young and very old, the infant and the patriarch. The sexton can almost tell whose grave he will next dig. In a similar manner at Edeale, under the shadow of Kinder Scout, death goes by seniority.

At Tidwell, also in the "Peak" country, there was, quite recently, the funeral of a man sixty-four years of age, whose father and mother were still living in the parish, having been married sixty-seven years.—Sale's Journal.

NOTICE.

My men are now riding to collect the taxes due me. They have instructions to collect or levy as they go. To save myself I am bound to do this, and there will be no exceptions from this rule. I must have the money, and all those indebted must govern themselves accordingly. I mean this and nothing less. A. L. CRUCE.

It Tastes Good

One reason why Scott's Emulsion of Pure Norwegian Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda has had such a large sale is because it is "Almost as palatable as milk" but the best reason is that its curative properties are unequalled. It cures the cough, supplies the waste of tissues, produces flesh and builds up the entire system.

Scott's Emulsion cures Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Sore Throat, All Anemic and Wasting Diseases. Prevents wasting in children. Almost as palatable as milk. Get only the genuine. Prepared by Scott & Bown, Chemists, New York. Sold by all Druggists.
